LADY AZUL was built in 2001 by leading Dutch shipyard Heesen, with extensive interior and exterior refits in 2015, 2019 and 2021, installing new technologies and amenities to cater for the modern-day charterer. The 39.4m full displacement yacht has been reimagined with exploration and adventure in mind, whilst maintaining the elegance and timeless style of the original build, destined to cruise the less travelled part of the world.

Captain Gerry Ross and experienced crew are familiar with the vast Mergui archipelago of Myanmar, the natural beauty of Koh Samui and abundance of diverse marine life in Phuket, offering unrivalled local knowledge to all their guests, ensuring they get to experience the most pristine beaches and natural wonders of the world.

LADY AZUL comfortably accommodates 10 guests in 5 staterooms, boasting a full-beam master stateroom on the main deck, as well as four well-maintained staterooms in the lower deck, comprising of 2 full-beam VIP staterooms and 2 twin staterooms, all with luxurious en suites, entertainment centres and hostess call buttons.

Expansive outdoor space offers guests the opportunity to embrace the surrounding nature with ample seating areas for lounging, sunbathing and alfresco dining. For those wanting to immerse themselves in the water, the beach club is the perfect place to be, brimming with water toys and a huge netted custom pool for protected swimming. For the more energetic, there is a well-appointed air-conditioned gym and fully equipped dive centre to uncover preserved shipwrecks, colourful reefs with over 3/4 of the worlds coral species and a multitude of other marine life.

Southeast Asia is home to thousands of islands offering undiscovered beaches, turquoise waters and thriving marine ecosystems making it one of the most spectacular destinations for scuba diving fanatics, with experienced Divemaster, Captain Gerry on hand to lead your dives.

LADY AZUL has been designed for those seeking an authentic yachting adventure all whilst providing unsurpassed levels of personal service.
