* Air condition on Bonaventura can be manually controlled in each cabin. It includes 42 hours per week. AC is available from 22:00 till 06:00 when it runs on generator. For safety reasons, even if the yacht is completely isolated in a cove, the generator cannot be left on for 24 continuous hours, as the engine room must be manned while the generator is in use. For additional use of AC is on request and fee is fuel only. When gulet is in port AC can run all night if port can provide enough voltage. In case that there is not enough voltage provided by port, AC cannot be run on generator as harbour regulations forbid generator noise after this time.
