It's all about comfort and the finer things in life aboard GRADE I. Pleasing to the eye with southern charm, a light, fresh interior and deck space where you will enjoy the warm sun or cooling breeze under shade.

The name GRADE I refers to the best of the best in thoroughbred horse racing. This Christensen-built yacht has an excellent charter history and now re-enters the charter market equipped to continue this standing with a complete refit in 2018 and modification that extended the sundeck allowing more areas for outdoor relaxing. No expense has been spared to make her first choice for your cruising vacation.
