Silver Fox

For guests looking for a charter yacht that maximises outdoor spaces, creating luxurious lounging areas, offering panoramic sea views, and actively encouraging fun in the sun, the Baglietto yacht SILVER FOX is sure to tick a lot of boxes.

SILVER FOX's interiors have a liberal use of glass throughout, such as the floor-to-ceiling windows in the main salon, ensuring the connection to the sea is strong everywhere you go.

The colour palette is neutral and calming, a reprieve from the midday sun whilst still being able to appreciate the sea surroundings. There is also a separate dining area in the main salon for formal dinner parties, which also has large windows.

She accommodates 12 guests across a very charter-friendly five cabins, including a main deck master suite, with an office, a walk-in wardrobe, and his and her's bathrooms, plus two double cabins and two convertible twin-cabins on the lower deck.

The deck space is where SILVER FOX really excels. Her 140 square metre sun deck is the largest in her class. Module furniture allows for flexibility, as they can be swept aside for a sunrise yoga session or to make room for a dancefloor, while the infinity pool is a real scene stealer.

The upper deck terrace is equally as impressive, with an exceptional floor space for alfresco dining and lounging.

SILVER FOX has yet another inviting outdoor area in the beach club, complete with its own steam room and gym. So while crew bring the water toys out to play, guests can unwind in this cool on-the-water space, which is pretty impressive for a sub-50m yacht.
